

Tammy Flood attended her first speech and debate meeting in Fort Worth, Texas, in 2011 with her husband and four boys, including a two-week-old baby. She slowly became immersed in the world of speech and debate by working in various tournament roles. Tammy soon learned Ballot Push by working in tournaments of multiple sizes, including leading Ballot Push at NITOC in 2019. For several years, She has been the camp and tournament admin for her club, Invictus Fides, in Southlake, Texas.

Tammy was the chair of the Stoa Communications Committee for two years and a member of the StoaTraX Committee since its inception in 2020. She loves teaching others how to implement Flowpad and StoaTraX in tournaments throughout Stoa. Tammy also volunteers on the Stoa Tools and Tabulation committee to represent and support our community as we develop and launch our new software.
